

THE LANGUAGE OF DESIGN AND PERFORMANCE

The all-new 2010 Forte Koup is Kia's first two-door coupe and represents the next evolution of Kia's design language, spoken in an unmistakable performance dialect.

With a sleek, toned body riding low to the ground, the Forte Koup doesn't arrive on the scene, it commands it. Just as surely as its available sport-tuned suspension and 173 horsepower, dual CVVT 4-cylinder engine command the road.
