A NEW WAY TO SEE THE WORLD.

With the all-new 2011 Sorento, Kia wants to show you a new way to see the world. We didn't just upgrade a few features and add more equipment, we had something bigger in mind: an all-new vehicle.

One look at Sorento and you'll see why we call it beautifully rugged. With a new unibody structure, European-inspired styling, and available seven-passenger seating, everything about the Sorento has changed for the better. Even the manufacturing plant that builds it is new – and in North America.
